Situation:

The property is situated in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty in the heart of Rolvenden village, which provides local amenities including a general village store and post office, two public houses, weekly farmers' market, and prominent 13th Century church.

Tenterden and Cranbrook, with their picturesque High Streets, are 3 miles and 6½ miles distant respectively and both offer a wider range of shops, restaurants, banks, supermarkets, as well as a leisure centre at Tenterden. A more comprehensive range of facilities is available in Tunbridge Wells (20 miles distant) and Ashford (15 miles distant). There is an excellent choice of schools in the area, and we understand the property also sits with the Cranbrook School Catchment Area.

There are regular rail services from Staplehurst, Headcorn and Ashford, providing good commuter links into London, and the high-speed line to St Pancras from Ashford International takes about 37 minutes.

Description:

The Old Post Office is an attached Grade II listed house dating from the 1700s with most attractive external elevation of weatherboard and brick beneath a tiled roof.

The property is well presented throughout and provides spacious and flexible accommodation arranged over three floors and includes on the ground floor: an open plan kitchen/dining room, which extends to over 29ft and has an extensive range shaker style wall and base units with solid wood worksurfaces, range cooker, quarry tiled floor, plenty of space for a large table and windows overlooking the driveway and garden. Doors from the kitchen lead to a utility room with quarry tiled flooring, a door leading out to the side of the property, a cloakroom and a further door to a study, as well as a very good-sized sitting room with two large windows overlooking the front garden, exposed beams and an inglenook fireplace fitted with a wood burning stove. On the second floor there is a large storage cupboard, a further double bedroom and a shower room.

Outside, the property is approached through five bar gates over a gravel driveway with mature gardens to the front. The driveway runs along the side of the property to a large area of parking where there is a double bay car port, as well as a double garage. Beyond the driveway is the well-established garden, which is mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and fruit trees and a terraced area with a pergola, ideal for outdoor entertaining.
