The regional centre of Tunbridge Wells is about 10 miles distant and provides a comprehensive range of amenities including the Royal Victoria Shopping centre, cinema complex and theatres.

The beautiful surrounding countryside is a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and includes Bewl Water Reservoir, reputedly the largest area of inland water in the South East, where a wide range of water sports can be enjoyed.

For the commuter, Stonegate station is approximately ½ mile distant and provides a regular service to London Charing Cross/ Cannon Street in just over an hour. The A21 is also within easy reach and links with the M25.

Description:

Forge Cottage is a beautiful Grade II listed period cottage with attractive external elevations of brick, render and weather boarding beneath a tiled roof. The property has been sympathetically extended over time to provide light, well presented and spacious accommodation that is full of character and charm, benefiting from period features, including pretty sash windows, and from the main rooms being double aspect, enjoying an outlook over the lane and rear gardens.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and includes on the ground floor; an entrance lobby with stairs to the first floor, a spacious and light double aspect sitting/dining room with a feature fireplace (currently not working) and french doors leading to the garden, a good-sized double aspect kitchen/breakfast room with a range of modern wall & base units and an oil fired range cooker housed in a chimney recess, a large utility room (formerly the Forge and now offering excellent scope to be re-modelled into a different type of room), a useful rear lobby and a shower room. On the first floor there two bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes and a good-sized family bathroom.

Outside the property is approached off a quiet lane with gates leading to a block paved drive providing parking for two cars and a large, detached garage and workshop.

A real feature of the property are the delightful rambling gardens that wrap around the cottage, including a good-sized terrace beneath a pergola, which is ideal for outdoor entertaining, an area of lawn with mature shrub borders leading to a path that meanders up the boundary of the property to a wild area of garden which includes a small area of lawn surrounded by a variety of mature plants and trees, a greenhouse, shed and a compost area. The path continues to a further area of lawn where there is a summerhouse from where views can be enjoyed across the village. The garden has hedging and fencing on all sides.

Services: Mains water and electricity. Oil-fired central heating
